PSD Graduate Student Resources

In addition to your faculty and your department or program staff, there are divisional (PSD) and University offices that support your Graduate Education. This guide is intended as a quick reference to help you navigate the many resources available to you.

People

Physical Sciences Division

Dean of Students: Miranda Swanson 773-702-8790, ERC 307
Associate Dean of Students: Emily Easton 773-702-9708, ERC 307
Assistant Dean of Students: Shirley Proby 773-702-8789

Your academic program office is often your first stop for information about routine matters, but your Dean of Students office provides you with another level of support and guidance (e.g., questions about leaves of absence or withdrawal, serving as a sounding board prior to a departmental conversation, connections to campus resources). The PSD Dean of Students Office works with your program faculty and staff and other administrative offices throughout the university on a wide range of student-related business and programming. If you have questions or concerns, we invite you call, email, or visit us in person.

University of Chicago
Office of the Student Ombudsperson
The Office of the Student Ombudsperson is a resource for all University of Chicago students to assist in the resolution of conflicts, concerns, and other problems that they may encounter through the course of University life.

Resources for Student Input

Departmental

- You may schedule an individual student meeting with the Executive Officer/Director of Graduate Studies/Graduate Concerns Committee or your Department Chair or Program Director.
- Other formal mechanisms include departmental town halls and/or ombudspersons.

Physical Sciences Division

- PSD Dean’s Student Advisory Committee (DSAC)
  Committee meetings give PSD students an advisory voice in the division’s administration and an opportunity to comment on how institutional policies and plans affect student life. Likewise, they provide the deans with an opportunity to explain institutional policies to the students and to learn first-hand about student concerns.

- PSD Social Committee (PSD-SC)
  The PSD Social Committee plans social, athletic, and cultural events for students in PSD. Overseen by the PSD Dean of Students Office, the committee appropriates the Division's share of the quarterly student life fee. The committee is made up of PSD student volunteers and all PSD students are welcome to participate. A board (president, treasurer, secretary) is elected at the autumn meeting and serves a term from January to December.

- You may schedule an individual student meeting with PSD Dean of Students.
The Graduate Council is the representative student government for graduate students, making up half of the Assembly of the Student Government of the University of Chicago. It is comprised of representatives chosen by the various professional and graduate divisions.
